TUESDAY EVENING. NOV. 19, 1895

A REMARKABLE CRIMINAL TRIAL. A remarkable criminal trial has been in progress in Carroll county for nearly six years. A white man named Tilley was charged with having murdered a woman and having burned her body under a biush pile. The evidence was purely circumstantial, but strong, and Tilley was condemned to be hanged. An appeal was taken and the Court of Appeals set the verdict aside. Again he was tried and again condemned to be hanged, to be once more saved by the Court of Appeals. The Legislature of Virginia passed a law last winter removing such cases from the jurisdiction of the Circuit Court. By a com-promise at the term of the Circuit Court which has just adjourned in Carroll county, between the common wealth's attorney and Tilley's counsel Gen. Walker, is was agreed that Tilley could be discharged by the Circuit Court, rearrested and indicted in the County Court; that he should be tried for manslaughter and condemned to two and a half years in the peniten-tiary. During the five years he has been under sentence Tilley has been confined in jail, much of the time in an iron cage and changed to the floor.

How to Present Croup. SOME READING THAT WILL PROVE INTERESTING TO YOUNG MOTHERS. HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THE DISEASE.

Croup is a terror to young mothers and to post them concerning the cause, first symptoms and treatment is the object of this item. The origin of croup is a common cold. Children who are subject to it take cold very easily and croup is almost sure to follow. The first symptom is hoarseness; this is soon followed by a peculiar rough cough, which is easily recognized and will never be forgotten by one who has heard it. The time to act is when the child first becomes hoarse. If Cham-berlain's Cough Remedy is freely given all tendency to croup will soon disappear. Even after the croupy cough attack. There is no danger in giving this remedy for it contains nothing injurious. For sale by L. Stabler & Co. Druggists.

A False Diagnosis.

La Grippe is confounded by many person with a severe attack of catarrh, which in som with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the forehead, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact, are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief.

St. Nicholas in 1896.

For almost a quarter of a century St Nicholas Magazine has been bearing its welcome messa-ges each mon'h to the young people of the land. It has been fortunate in securing con-tributions for its pages from leading writers and srtists, while it has given to its readers many works that have become imperishable classics in juvenile literature. The magazine is a help to those that have the care and up-bringing of children, in that it is full of brightness and interest and tends to cultivate brightness and interest and tends to cultivate high aspirations, without being "preachy" and prosy. During the coming year the leading feature will be a series of letters written to young people from Samoa by Robert Louis Stovenson Rudyard Kipling will write for it, and James Whitcomb Riley will contribute a poem to the Christmas number "The Swordmaker's Son" is a story of boy-life in Palestine at the time of the founding of Christianity. It is written by W. O. Stoddard, "The Prize Cup" is one of J. T. Trowbridge's best atories. Albert Stearns has written another story, In "Sinbad, Smith & Co.," he has again gone to "The Arabian Nights" for inspiration. These are but a few of the features. During the coming year $1,000 will be given away in prizes. will be given away in prizes.
